  - 6210.9 Participation in Supremacist or Extremist Organization
    - IMMEDIATE/MANDATORY processing following first substantiated incident.
    - Misconduct relates to illegal discrimination or advocated use of force/violence against Federal/State/Local government or agency thereof.
    - Incident is substantiated through court-martial conviction, NJP, or administrative separation board.

INVOLUNTARY SEPARATIONS

- Note: Marines must be processed for all bases for which minimum criteria are met (MARCORSEPMAN para 6302.1)

COUNSELING

- What is Marine Corps policy regarding counseling and rehabilitation?
  - Reasonable efforts at rehabilitation should be made before initiation of separation proceedings
- Unless separation is MANDATORY (Drug Abuse, Sexual Harassment, Participation in Supremacist or Extremist Organization), the potential for rehabilitation and further useful military service will be considered by the separation authority, and where applicable, the administrative board

COUNSELING

- Pursuant to IRAM and MARCORSEPMAN the following 5 elements must be included:
  - Written notification concerning deficiencies or impairments;

1. Deficiencies: List the deficiencies for which the Marine was counseled (i.e., disorderly conduct; DUI on date; civilian arrest for reason on date, UA from appointed place of duty...).

COUNSELING

2. Corrective Action: List what corrective action the Marine can take (i.e., follow rules and regulations; refrain from driving after consuming alcohol; obey civilian laws...).
3. Assistance Available: Tell the Marine where assistance is available to help him/her overcome their deficiencies (i.e., chain of command; SACO; unit chaplain; legal officer).
4. Failure to Take Corrective Action: Tell the Marine that if he does not correct this deficiency or if he/she violates the UCMJ in the future, he/she could face administrative discharge or judicial proceedings.

COUNSELING

5. Written Rebuttal: Tell the Marine that he/she has the right to submit a written rebuttal to this counseling entry.

NOTE: 6105 Counseling Entry MUST be signed by the Commanding Officer

- Separation processing may not be initiated until the Marine is counseled concerning deficiencies, and afforded a reasonable opportunity to overcome those deficiencies. Reasonable opportunity must be determined by the Commanding Officer
